Barbara,

It is with great regret that I am informing you of my resignation from the ACPD. I am planning to attend school full time beginning in May along with working full time. My current work schedule had been requiring near 60 hours a week and I have found it quite difficult to remain effective in the volunteer efforts I am involved in.

I will not be able to attend tonight's meeting because I am waiting for a towing agency to come pick up my car. They have estimated that they will be here between 7:30-8pm.

I would like to stay involved with the ACPD by attending the monthly meetings. However, I would prefer to do this as a concerned citizen rather than the Housing Committee chairman. This will enable me to become more versed in the issues that are important to the disability community, while not preventing a more qualified candidate from taking over in my role.

Lastly, I would really love if you continue to keep me on your distribution list. I am hoping to return to the commission within 2 years and if you continue to keep me up to date, along with attending the monthly meetings, I promise I will return to the ACPD a stronger and more effective member.

Thanks for everything,

David Kaszowicz

Re: Resignation from Redevelopment and Housing Authority Board of Commissioners

Dear Kerry:

I recently accepted a new employment opportunity in Phoenix, Arizona and will soon move to the Phoenix area. I am therefore submitting my resignation from the Redevelopment and Housing Authority Board of Commissioners. My resignation is effective April 29, 2003, which is the day after the next meeting of the Board of Commissioners.

I have enjoyed very much my tenure on the Board, and hope that my efforts have had a positive impact on the housing authority. The redevelopment of the Samuel Madden Homes was the primary motivation for me in joining the housing authority Board, and it was my desire to stay on the Board at least until the completion of that project. Alas, it appears that there is finally a light at the end of the tunnel, and soon there will be development taking place on those two city blocks.

I thank you and the other members of council that have supported me over the years, and for the opportunity to serve the wonderful City of Alexandria.

Sincerely,
Antoine P. Cobb
